EVERY Simmons student is a member of Student Government Association, the largest and most important student organization at Simmons. The Association elects twelve members to form Student Government Council, which meets weekly to deal with student administrative problems and routine.

This year, for instance, Student Government has considered as one of its major problems the payment of a compulsory activities fee by each student; and a plan has been proposed recommending such a fee. Many and varied, large and small, are the questions that form the business of Student Government.

DORMITORY COUNCIL is charged with the regulation of dormitory affairs and with the enforcement of the Simmons Code. From this Council arise recommendations for the betterment of dormitory life, which are sent first to the Student Government Council for ratification, and then to Advisory Board for final sanction. Dormitory Council attempts to interpret the rules to the resident students and to encourage a feeling of respect for them.

This Council is made up of the Vice-President of Student Government, who acts as its leader, and all House Chairmen.

WITH the change in the new Honor System, Honor Committee has been accepted as a natural successor of the old Judicial Board. This committee has been in operation for four years. While the duty of the committee is to educate the student body to the proper observance of the Honor Code, it also deals with any violations of the code in the academic field.

The act of registering as a student of Simmons College is the acceptance of the principles of the Honor System. In short, it is a promise neither to give nor to receive aid in any quiz or examination, nor to use any source material without explicitly noting the source. Honor Committee is comprised of four Seniors and three Juniors elected by Student Government Council and the President of Student Government, who is a member ex-officio.

FOR the purpose of considering all offenses against Student Government dormitory regulations, there exists within Dormitory Council a Dormitory Board which is composed of ten members: the Vice-President of Student Government, who is Chairman of the Board; three Seniors, two Juniors, one Sophomore, and one Freshman elected by the Dormitory Council; and the President of Student Government and the Chairman of Honor Committee, who are members ex-officio. The Board has as its aim the education of the student in the Council's policies rather than exemplary punishment.

THE Advisory Committee was formed for the purpose of aiding Student in its dormitory problems. The committee is composed of the Dean, three members of the instructing staff who are graduates of the college, appointed by the President, and three members of the Student Government Council.

All dormitory rules and questions proposed by Student Government are referred to this Committee, which discusses them freely. On the basis of the opinion expressed in these meetings, the Dean accepts or rejects the submitted proposals.

ACADEMY has aimed this year to provide worthwhile meetings of interest to the college as a whole, and has invited outsiders with the idea of stimulating interest in Academy, its pursuits, and its functions. These open meetings have been held informally around the fireplace in North Hall with instructors, speakers, or members leading the discussions. This year Mr. Bush spoke to us about architecture, and Rev. Vivian Pomeroy, a great favorite of Simmons students, spoke to a large open meeting.

THE Home Economics Club is the organization which aims to acquaint students with the professional openings in the Home Economics field. The monthly meetings are teas at which graduates frequently speak of their experiences in the business world, or trips to commercial production plants.

The income from dues, food sales, catering and our newly established mending service enables the Club to affiliate with the Massachusetts, New England, and National Home Economics Associations, to send a delegate to the National Convention—to be in Chicago this June—to create a Scholarship for a worthy Home Economics Student, and to have a banquet in May at which new Freshmen members are welcomed.

This year for the first time Freshmen were invited to the annual banquet, so that from the beginning of Sophomore year they will benefit from club contacts which are invaluable.

THE 020 Club was organized four years ago to further the social relationship among the Juniors, Seniors, and Graduates of the Library School, and to increase their professional interest by contact with librarians and literary people.

This year the meetings were in the form of teas, the first being a get-acquainted meeting. Later we were privileged to have Dr. Gay of the English department as a speaker at a meeting with the Poetry Club. At one tea, Miss Ruth Leonard, a graduate of the Library School, came back to tell us of some of her experiences. In the spring, the members had the last meeting of the year.

The club is still comparatively new, but each year there has been progress in the development of the organization. May the future activities be carried on with enthusiasm and success.

THE Ellen Richards Club was founded in 1920 to stimulate an interest in science and to further good fellowship among the science students. The club was named in honor of Ellen Richards, the first woman to graduate from the Massachusetts Institute of Technology. Monthly meetings are held in the form of teas, and topics of scientific interest are presented by prominent speakers. The students are encouraged to attend scientific lectures in and around Boston.

The initiation party in October and the birthday celebration in December are also part of the year's program.

THE Ann Strong Student Club was organized in 1933 for all members of the School of Nursing. The club bears the name of the first director of the school. The aim of the club is to bring together the Nursing students in the college and those studying in the hospitals. The purpose of our meetings is not merely social, but also educational. We try to improve our knowledge of nursing by having speakers who are interested in the field.

THE English Club is still a new organization. It was formed last year to bring to the girls in the English School material which would be helpful and interesting to them in their work. This has been done largely through the introduction of outside speakers who have had experience in writing and publishing.

Among our speakers this year were Esther Forbes, the noted author, and Jane Terrill, a graduate of Simmons, who is now with the New York publishing house of Longmans Green.

We wish the English Club success for next year and the years to come.

THE Poster Association, composed of those artistically inclined, is a vital unit among the organizations of the college. Through its talent and enthusiasm, almost all of the college activities are announced by attractive posters—dances, teas, and parties, and every poster is the result of student talent. The only organization interested in art, Poster Association represents the talent, interest and appreciation of art at Simmons, and is directed toward artistic advertising and art appreciation. Every girl on the staff is an active and enthusiastic promoter of its ideals, and plans for future exhibits and social activities have been definitely defined.

The theme of this year's program seemed to be the history and social conditions of foreign countries, among the speakers being Miss Edith Fishtine, who talked of Spain; Miss Elena Trayan, who told about Albania; Dr. Varrell, who illustrated with slides his lecture on the Holy Land; and Miss Isabella McNair of Kiunaird College, India, who spoke of that country.

Forum wishes to thank Dr. Varrell for his kind interest and assistance in its work.

THE activities of the Debating Society for the year 1934-1935, unfortunately, have not been very numerous and inter-collegiate debating was not even attempted, although many challenges were received.

The specialized nature of the society's work has naturally limited its membership, but the few industrious and interested ones have thoroughly enjoyed the informal discussions and more serious debates, one of the latter being on that oft-debated question "Capital Punishment."

It is hoped that with the present enthusiastic debaters as a nucleus, the society will develop into a more live and vital organization.

THE Poetry Club has been primarily interested in self-expression through the writing of verse, and in reading old and modern poetry. This year, in informal meetings, special emphasis has been given to the reading and discussion of contemporary poets. Members of the club have read at the annual Faculty Tea and before the Boston Center of the Poetry Society of England. Original verse by members has appeared in the "Arrows Released" column of News and in Per-Simmons. The club enjoys the personal interest of Mr. deMille, friend and adviser.

MUSICAL ASSOCIATION has had a varied and interesting program this year. As in the past, there was the Christmas Vesper Concert in the Refectory, at which Mr. Thiede, our director, was guest soloist. At the first Student Assembly, a group from the Glee Club sang German carols, and an instrumental trio played appropriate music.

Later, some of the members sang at the Sunday Musicales of the Boston Simmons Club. Our joint concert this year was with the Tufts Glee Club, and was held in the Refectory, with dancing after the concert.

Although the Instrumental Club has not been very active, groups of its members have played at class and faculty affairs, and particularly at Old English Dinner in December.

Last of all is "Pops," where the Glee Club members hope to sing on Simmons Night. It is hoped that next year the program of the Musical Association may be even more full and enjoyable than in the past.

THE Scout Club at Simmons does not aim to carry on regular troop activity but is conducted more for social and recreational fun. Through outdoor hikes, teas and speakers, the club endeavors to acquaint its members with the more grown-up aspects of scouting.

This past year we have been lucky enough to have splendid speakers from both local and state staffs. Our two spring meetings were devoted to camping and advice concerning the requirements for a good camp counsellor.

THIS year has been an exciting one, for we have broadened our program of weekly teas and fireside suppers to include an informal discussion group led by Mr. Lumpkin of Trinity Church in which we sought to clarify our religious convictions. Dr. Robinson's series on "Being Your Age" represented a step in the direction of training for social adjustment.

Simmons "Y" became a member of the New England Student Christian Movement, which we believe will provide valuable intercollegiate activities of interest to all students.

Friendships make college worthwhile and "Y" is friendship.

THE Menorah Society at Simmons aims to bring the Jewish students into closer contact with each other and with the Jewish student body of other colleges. It further aims to promote the study of Jewish ideals and culture.

The social program this year consisted of a series of teas, a formal dinner dance and a formal dance. Joint meetings were held with the various Menorah groups as well as a series of dances in conjunction with the Intercollegiate Menorah Association.

A connection was established with the New England Council of Avukah, which has very obligingly assisted in planning a discussion of Jewish problems—past, present, and future.

In recent years, it has been the custom to award a scholarship to a worthy Jewish student.

ALL Catholic students at Simmons are automatically members of the Newman Club. It is one of the largest clubs in the college, and is a member of the National Federation of College Catholic Clubs and also of the New England Province of the Federation.

The purpose of the club is to further the interest of its members in the moral, social, and intellectual problems of the day as they affect the Catholic Church, and to sponsor a united spirit of friendship among the Catholic students at Simmons. Lectures by prominent priests, followed by discussions, are features of the monthly teas which are held in the Lounge. During the college year there are Communion Breakfasts, a bridge party, and a formal dance.

SIMMONS UNITY CLUB is open to students and faculty of all Protestant faiths. Its purpose is to bring together all students of liberal religious ideals, to promote friendships, and to stimulate the exchange of beliefs and opinions in regard to religion, national affairs, and life. Unity Club holds its meetings on the third Monday of the month, at which time an outside speaker addresses the group and then ample time is reserved for a bit of sociability among the students and guests.

Activities of the club are not limited to the monthly meetings. Several times a year there are conferences with prominent speakers and round-table discussions held under the auspices of the Boston Unitarian-Universalist Student Council, of which the Simmons Unity Club is a member. In the spring, the club holds its annual formal dance.

THE Dramatic Association reports another successful year, full of interesting developments, and marked by increased membership. We are trying to make it a club that will appeal to all those interested in the theater, regardless of whether they have any thespian ability or not. This was certainly attained at our large open meeting at which we were fortunate enough to have the famous English actress, Dame Sybil Thorndike, speak.

The all-college play, "The First Mrs. Fraser," presented at the Repertory Theater on April 13, was acclaimed a success by all, and well worth waiting a little longer for. The traditional Competitive Plays were resumed again this year with renewed success and interest.

THE Microcosm staff is composed of members from each class, who devote considerable time and effort to the creation of a suitable record of the round of activities in a year at Simmons. It is aided in this endeavor by Student Government Association, which stands back of the Microcosm in the event that its subscriptions, its annual dance, and its contributions from Simmons organizations should not be sufficient to make it self-supporting.

This MIC has been made possible through the coöperation of our subscribers, the helpful guidance of our faculty advisor, Mr. Sypher, the innumerable suggestions of Miss Burnett and Miss Sutherland, and the invaluable assistance of Mr. Johnson, the representative of Doubleday, Doran & Company, in the actual composition of the book. We thank you all.

BROADLY speaking NEWS had two aims in 1934-35; to please most of its readers all of the time and to interpret college life at Simmons; and, secondly, to develop old and organize some new general methods of procedure in putting out the paper.

Changes in NEWS most obvious were those of physical make-up and the beginning of a weekly student questionnaire. Several minor but significant changes were made in procedure in the attempt to approach efficiency.

The annual all-college NEWS dance was held at the Hotel Statler with Rakov as maestro. Teas were given, and the annual election banquet was celebrated for the second time.

PRESS BOARD, under the direction of Mrs. Hill, has just completed one of its most successful years, as is evidenced by the well-filled scrapbook it maintains. Its purpose is to keep Simmons College and its activities before a broader public through local and out-of-town papers.

Recognizing a growing need for a more active, efficient publicity bureau, the administration has contributed generously of its interested support. Press Board, too, is grateful for the coöperation of the faculty, especially of the Public Relations Committee.

PER-SIMMONS was first published in 1931 as a literary supplement to NEWS; it was given magazine form in 1932, and continued as a supplement. It became an independent publication in 1933.

PER-SIMMONS aims to furnish an incentive for creative writing in the college, and to work toward becoming the center of a group interested not only in publishing its productions but in improving the quality of its writing through group criticism.

THE Simmons Athletic Association, which supervises all college sports, has tried this year to tie up athletics with informal activities to a greater degree than has been done in the past.

Its first social affair was a tea given in honor of Mrs. Chapman, whom we welcomed as our new instructor of Physical Education. This was followed by a very successful informal dance held at the Refectory, and by another tea, at which Professor Frederick Rand Rogers was the speaker.

Ping pong was added to the regular all-college sports, Hockey, Archery, Basketball, Tennis, Life Saving, Riding, and Faculty-Student tournaments have drawn much interest.

TENNIS has had a very successful season, with over a hundred girls playing in the fall singles tournament. The four class winners, who compose the Tennis team, played off their matches and the finalists, Ruth Bancroft, a Senior, and Ruth Berry, a Sophomore, played a splendid game in which the former won the singles championship. In the spring, the annual doubles tournament was held.

FOR several years Life Saving has held a place among the sports at Simmons. The courses are given at the Y.W.C.A. pool under the direction of Captain Jack Wallace of the Red Cross. The course for Senior Life Savers begins early in the fall. After the Christmas holidays there is an Examiners course which trains swimmers for teaching life saving at summer camps and beaches.

JUNIOR PROM HAILED AS HUGE SUCCESS BY ALL

Jack Marchard And The Seniors
Were The Outstanding
Entertainers

Junior Prom will long be remembered by the Class of '35. The gay balloons, the college name and numerals against a colorful curtain, and Teddy himself perched in such a position as to be the cynosure of all eyes were conducive to a jolly good time Friday at the Statler.

At 9:30 o'clock the Seniors in their caps and gowns serenaded from the balcony. Jack Marchard's music was first rate. Unanimous approval and surprise was expressed about the modernistic, steel programs. Little diaries and address books were found tucked away in the back.

Supper was served at 11 o'clock consisting of tomato juice cocktail, chicken or lobster salad, coffee, and orange ice cream and fudge cake.

Mr. and Mrs. Beatley, Miss Mesick, Mr. and Mrs. Mark, Mr. and Mrs. Hyatt, and Mr. and Mrs. Stearns were in the receiving line. Constance Dort Class President, and Jeanne Perrault, Prom Chairman, also greeted the guests.

Sophomore Class Officers who ushered were Betty Adams, Jean Burt, Elizabeth Bowen, Lucia Charlton, Mary Louise Imrie and Kathryn Homs.

Once again let us congratulate Jeanne and her committee which worked hard and earnestly that Junior Prom be a success.
